Informative Speech (Process)

General Purpose: To inform my audience about a process.

Specific Purpose: To inform my audience about the process of succeeding in higher education.

Thesis Statement: Motivation, setting goals, and learning and using skill sets are three essential elements for succeeding in college.

Introduction

- I. Attention Getter: Do you want to make more money?
- A. Do you want to have a more secure career?
- B. How about a second home?
- C. What about being able to afford to take a vacation?
- II. Thesis Statement/Introduce Topic: A college degree will enable you to make these things happen, and in order to succeed in college you need to know how a degree will help you.
- III. Preview: Motivation is the first component of a attaining a college degree.
- A. Even with the proper motivation, however, you still need to set goals to help you get where you wish to be.
- B. Finally, you need the right skill sets to achieve in college, because after all, "it ain't high school."
- [Transition: With all those things in mind, let's first look at the basic value of a college degree.]
- I. Main Point: It is important to know that a college degree can provide you with many advantages, most notable in employment and earning potential.
- A. Sub-point: According to the Associated Press, during the 2008 recession those with a college degree lost their jobs at half the rate of those without a degree.

LEGAL MEMORANDUM

TO: PET Members

FROM: Larry L. Crain
Office of General Counsel

RE: How to Resign From the Union

DATE: August 2008

Introduction

There is widespread confusion among teachers and unions alike concerning a member's rights related to union membership. The purpose of this memorandum is to provide legal guidance regarding union membership, particularly, the right of a member to resign from the union.

I. Union Membership is Voluntary.

Teachers are not required, as a condition of their employment, to join the union and pay full membership dues. Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act ("NLRA"), 29 U.S.C. § 157 gives employees "the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor organizations" but also provides them with "the right to refrain from any or all of such activities." Additionally, Tennessee has in force its own Right to Work law which secures the right of employees to decide for themselves whether or not to join or financially support a union. See Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 50-1-201 through 204. See e.g. Tenn. Atty. Gen. Opinions dated 7-30-79 and 6-14-79, W.L. 79-289, referencing the Education Professional Negotiations Act (T.C.A. § 49-55-06), stating that "professional employees shall also have the right to refrain from any or all such [union] activities." Thus, under controlling Supreme Court precedent and Tennessee law, courts have held: "Equally clear is an individual's right of choice not to associate himself with a particular organization or ideology." Fort Wane Educ. Ass'n. v. Goetz, 443 N.E.2d 364, 368 (1982) (citing Abood v. Detroit Bd. of Educ., 431 U.S. 207, 238 (1977)).

In addition to federal and state laws, the Constitution also provides a safeguard against an employee's deprivation of their right to freedom of association. Teachers have the right to contract with a professional association of their choice and a union contract cannot infringe upon that right. See Roberts v. United States Jaycees, 468 U.S. 609, 623 (1984) (Infringements on freedom of association "may be justified by regulations adopted to serve compelling state interests, unrelated to suppression of ideas, that cannot be achieved through means significantly less restrictive of associational freedoms"); Elrod v. Burns, 427 U.S. 347, 363 (1976) (government means must be "least restrictive of freedom of belief and association"); Kasper v. Pontikes, 414 U.S. 51, 58-59 (1973)

5th Grade Persuasive Essay: What Can You Write About It?

What can you write in your 5th Grade Persuasive essay? Do you like it when you argue with your friend and finally convince them to accept you viewpoint? Well, a persuasive essay follows a similar pattern. What things do you need to include in your persuasive custom essay? Remember, the main aim of ‘argument’ is to garner support for your concepts and win acceptance when other people seem to disagree with you. This should be the basis of your 5th Grade Persuasive essay.

1) Before you write your 5th Grade Persuasive essay, take time to think about a suitable topic for your custom term paper. A good 5th Grade Persuasive essay must include some sort of discrepancy, one that you need to use persuasive skills to correct. Do you really need to have a discrepancy in your 5th Grade Persuasive essay? Yes, if none exist, then there is no need to write a 5th Grade Persuasive essay! What else can you write?

2) Your 5th Grade Persuasive essay must reflect efforts to win over opposition. How can you do this? Well, you must foresee and conquer objections that might be raised by the opposition in order to write a good 5th Grade Persuasive essay. For example, ask yourself: How will the opposition counter my idea? How can my idea gain prominence against their arguments? Are my points strong or weak? Your academic writing should be based on these questions.

3) Your 5th Grade Persuasive essay must state you goal at the introduction paragraph in a coherent way. Your position regarding the issues at hand must as well be reflected in your thesis statement, which is the last sentence of the introduction paragraph. Finally, support your position with relevant evidence to make your 5th Grade Persuasive essay more persuasive as well as informative.

D.A.R.E Essay

Have you ever said, “Just ONE time can’t hurt,”? Well I have just ONE word for you, OWCH!!! If you think one time can’t hurt, you are sadly mistaken. Luckily D.A.R.E has taught me that “one time” CAN hurt, the strategies to get out of situations that can lead to that “one time”, and strategies that aren’t necessarily used to get out of situations but just for everyday life in general. Also, how to use those strategies now and how they should be used in my future.

First, I learned relatively healthy people can spiral down dramatically just by that “one time,” mentioned above. Officer Minemier shared a story with us about his mother, when she was a kid. She was a healthy person until she stumbled upon a group of girls who were smoking. They asked her to smoke with them, and because of peer pressure she only smoked a little bit. Then that little bit turned into more, more, and even more, until she became a full blown smoker. Smoking leads to many negative health effects such as: Bad breath, yellow teeth, having colds more often, and upper respiratory problems. To tie in with all of that, is the nicotine that’s in it.

Typically, these essays will answer one of the five Ws: who, what, where, when, and why. Of course, they can also answer “how,” indicating how to do something. Informative essays must never express your opinion or try to convince others to take a certain action or stance. That role is expressly reserved for persuasive essays. Of course, if your informative essay is interesting enough, it may move readers to learn more about the subject, but they’ll have to come to that on their own, thanks to the wealth of interesting information you present. Read our examples of informative essays and learn more about choosing a topic and how to write an informative essay to help you get started. The basic structure of an informative essay is simple. You need to have a medium and final beginning. These are formally known as the introduction, the body and the conclusion, respectively. The beginning, also known as introduction, is his opportunity to present his thesis declaration and attract the reader’s attention. His thesis declaration must be a prayer, making it very clear about what the reader will be informed. The introduction can be from a factor to a página, depending on the requirements and circumstances. Use this opportunity to introduce the main idea, provide relevant definitions and briefly describe what will be covered. Above all, the introduction must clearly indicate that readers are about to explore. Be sure to avoid any evidence of your opinion on the subject. Next, you will find two informative examples of the introduction of trials to help you make a rain of ideas about your own ideas. Introduction of sample #1: This trial analyzes the issue of donating blood. When you woke up this one, do you think today would be the day you save a life? In fact, it is quite very easy to save a life and just take a little of your time. You do not even need to be paraméo or firefighter. All you have to do is book about an hour to donate blood. This essay will explore how to donate blood, which benefits and frequently can contribute to these measures to save lives. Introduction of sample #2: This essay explores the story of Ireland from the perspective of its iconic castles. Ireland is a country full of history. In fact, its history dates from more than 3,000 a. C., when megalithic tombs were built in NewGrange. Throughout the expansive evolution of the country, the Irish fought again and again to maintain their independence as a sovereign birth. The evidence of the rich story is clearly visible through its many castles, dating from the early days of the British colonial era. In fact, Ireland is a país that has been seen in history and its numerous castles are the accountants of its history. In the following sample, observe some things like you read. Try to keep an eye out for the declaration of thesis in the first pitch. Then observe the words of transition in two of the body pages. They are, “also in a libune safely ...” and “in terms of diversion ...” finally, the quotes in text will vary, based on your teacher’s style guide, so that Be sure to check them. Download the PDF version under the test to save as a practical reminder. The title of the next essay is “how to travel alone with a xito”. James Baldwin said it better. “I met many people in Europe. I would even find myself!” (Baldwin, 2014). The solo trip will not only reveal new colorful heights, but will also introduce yourself - your resilience, your sense of adventure, your independence. Learning to travel is only as intruded as binding your shoes, and it is something that can be learned today. The first one, more obvious, way of traveling alone with a xito is to investigate its loss. The number one of a tourist is someone detained in the middle of the sidewalk scanning the GPS in his tel. As World Travel News Report, four out of fifteen tourists will be kidnapped if they remain in a busy street (Parker, 2019). Arrive well informed in the area. Understand the public transport system to the point where you can mix as a local. Also in line with security, you may want to flood the You can stay alone in a hostel, but read the opinions carefully. Make sure you are in a safe area and security is a priority for them. You could. Obtaining a commercial driver license most of the work in an informative essay is done before you really sit and write. Select an appropriate topic. Research and compilation of ideas on the subject. See what you already know about the subject while discovering other areas that you still need to investigate. Make a list of these important facts. Make sure all the facts are exact. This is a good time to elaborate your thesis declaration, so as a phrase of the subject for each fact that you want to include. Create a scheme that organizes its facts in a liquid way. After this, you will be ready to make your first draft. Write your essay based on the scheme you have created. Make sure a section naturally to the next. Check and edit your work. The edition is an important step for any writing project. Reading your essay out loud will help you notice areas where your writing may be unclear or uncomfortablePossible, make someone else read your essay and offer your ideas to improve. Of course, do not forget to pay attention to grammar, score, spelling, capitalization and other errors as well. An informative essay is the best way to explain something complicated, in a simple way. Although (luckily) you are writing on a topic of interest to you, make sure to make a backup of each claim with substantial facts and statistics. Let the content speak for itself, inviting readers to learn more. The informative essays are powerful and persuasive essays move, but have you ever had the task of a narrative essays? Enjoy the wonders of this third form of essay writing in examples of narrative essays and let the endless exchange of knowledge begin! Personal Writer’s Statement Examples A statement of thesis is a prayer that expresses the main idea of a research work or essay, such as an exhibition essay or argumentative essay. Makes a claim, answering a question directly. As you can see in the examples of the thesis statement below, it must be very specific, summarizing points that are about to be done in your document and supported by specific evidence. In general, his statement of thesis may be the last line of the first paragraph in his research or essay work. Examples of conclusion: strong endings for any article might argue that a conclusion is one of the most important components of any work or research article. It’s your last chance to make a good impression on your reader. If you can say with confidence that you have fully answered the question or if you are leaving readers a stimulating consideration, you have done well.
